NOTICE! CALL FOR AERA AWARD

The American Educational Research Association

Willystine Goodsell Award
Sponsored through the Research on Women and Education SIG

Purpose of the award: To recognize an educator who has served AERA on behalf of women, girls and education through:
- Scholarship
- Activism
- Community building

Willystine Goodsell, for whom the award is named, was a 19th-century activist teacher and faculty member at Teachers College, Columbia University. Goodsell dedicated her life to advancing opportunities and equal education for women.

The award is given to outstanding scholarship, activism and community building on behalf of women, girls and education. The award is presented annually by the American Educational Research Association (AERA) Research on Women and Education SIG to a person who has made a significant contribution to women and education.

Do you know someone who would represent this award well? Please send a letter of nomination (electronically or via regular mail), including resume/vita of the nominee no later than December 1, 2015 to:

Dr. Barbara Polnick, Chair, Willystine Goodsell Award Committee, bpolnick@shsu.edu, 936-520-7762, Address: Sam Houston State University, P.O.Box 1147, Huntsville, TX 77341.

Among the list of past Willystine Goodsell Award winners are:

Barbara Thayer-Bacon, Janice Koch, Beverly Irby, Genevieve Brown, Elizabeth Fennema, Sari Knopp Biklen, Susan Bailey, Selma Greenberg, Maxine Greene, Susan Klein, Charol Shakeshaft, Diana Pollard, Nel Noddings, Jane Roland Martin, Patricia Campbell, Marcia Linn, Sandra Hollingsworth, Gwen Baker, Pat Schmuck, Catherine Marshall, and Myra and David Sadker.